Question	Response
8. What was the most valuable part of this course?
	I knew nothing about medieval art before joining this course, which is why I wanted to take it. I feel like I learned so much about not just the art, but the social and cultural context of each era we discussed. I thought it was really fun and enjoyed Trent's lectures each class.
	The projects were very valuable in trying to understand the information and how to understand why things were done during the time periods discussed in class.
	The lectures were very informative!
	Learning the historical basis for aspects of medieval art that we may not have known otherwise, as I see it. I paid a lot of attention to the lectures on architecture, and the things I learned have changed the way I look at architecture in art- both when critiquing it and designing it.
	Gaining an understanding of the social context surrounding the artistic evolution from late antiquity to the proto-renaissance. I'm a big fan of history and enjoyed the entirety of the course.
	Presentation manner.

Question	Response
18. What (if anything) would you suggest to improve the facilities for this course?
	It was in Circle Hall, so it was cold a lot. Also the PC computer caused issues with reading PDFs and presentations.
	Nothing. The facility for this course was fine.
	N/A

Question	Response
	There were several loud pieces of equipment (possibly a heater/radiator?) that made it hard to hear lectures or presentations at times. Otherwise, the set up worked great!
	Nothing relevant to add here, the facilities served their purpose well

Question	Response
19. Add any additional comments or suggestions.

Question	Response
	Trent is awesome! Give him a raise.
	N/A
	My only suggestion is to fine-tune the length of the lectures just slightly. Most days felt rushed and it was tough to stay excited about the material when it felt like we were in a constant game of catch-up! I really enjoyed this class however. Thank you!
	Trent was a very good, accommodating professor. It was easy to communicate with him when I felt unclear in the course. He's also a really strong critic. The critiques I got from him on my work will be helpful in developing both how I create my work, and how I choose to present it.
	Phenomenal execution for a first-time instructor! I felt like Trent was confident in his understanding of the material and equipped to answer any questions that students had. I'd like to see him return to teach again, as he is on par with any other history instructor I've had.
